

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) - Brick Film Festival

1. What is the Brick Film Festival?

The Brick Film Festival is an annual event that celebrates and promotes young filmmakers. It offers a platform for filmmakers to showcase their cinematic creations and provides a rich environment for film enthusiasts to engage with like-minded individuals.

2. How can I submit my film to the festival?

To submit your film, please visit our official website and follow the submission guidelines provided. Make sure to adhere to the deadlines and requirements for each category.

3. What types of films are accepted for submission?

We accept films shot on professional cameras and shot entirely on mobile phone cameras, as well as other categories. Please refer to the submission guidelines on our website for specific criteria and categories.

4. Are there any age restrictions for attendees?

No, there are no age restrictions for attendees. The festival welcomes film enthusiasts of all ages.

5. What types of awards are offered at the festival?

Awards at the Brick Film Festival may include cash prizes, trophies, certificates, internships with production companies, and free filmmaking course vouchers on BrickETC. The specific awards and their values may vary.

6. Are there any workshops or masterclasses at the festival?

Yes, the festival features filmmaking workshops and masterclasses conducted by industry experts. Check our schedule for details on specific workshops and masterclasses.

7. How can I register to attend the festival?

You can register for the Brick Film Festival on our official website or at the festival venue.

8. Is there an entry fee for filmmakers who wish to submit their films?

Yes, there is an entry fee for film submissions. Please refer to the website for detailed information on entry fees.

9. Are there accommodations for out-of-town attendees?

We do not provide accommodations, but one can obtain information on the internet about nearby hotels and lodging options for those attending from out of town.

10. How can I get in touch with the festival organizers for more information or specific inquiries?

You can reach out to our festival organizers at brickfilmfestival@brick.edu.in

11. What if my film is longer than the given duration? Can I still make a submission?

Certainly! If your film is longer than the given duration (not more than 40 minutes) but still meets the other submission criteria, you can still make a submission to the festival. However, please be aware that your film may be subject to additional review. We will consider and inform you about your selection.